

Just a few quick notes.

There is a parent meeting tomorrow night at 5:30 at the high school pool. It would be great if you could make it.

Tomorrow will be the last day to get on the November order for suits and t-shirts. If you need on please order it at the YMCA tomorrow. The next order will go out at the first of December.

The high school team has meets on week nights during our season. On these days we will not have practice at the high school.
